

Soldier (High Valley)

Love, it's time to leave, I'm gone, no in-between Face the facts, it's do or die, I'll be back so don't you cry
Soldier

I'm gonna ride this train, no time to change
I made a vow to keep you safe, I'll take that promise to the grave
Soldier

Hey hey hey, I'll be coming home to you
You're the burning fire that my heart is beating to
You're like red, white, blue, I'd do it all for you
I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof
I'll be your soldier

Dark days ahead, skies tainted red
All the time I'm counting down until the wind comes back around
Soldier

Words keep me strong, protect me from the storm
When I'm down I'll pray for grace, 'til the day I see your face
Soldier

Hey hey hey, I'll be coming home to you
You're the burning fire that my heart is beating to
You're like red, white, blue, I'd do it all for you
I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof
I'll be your soldier
