

LATE PHASE CLINICAL OPERATIONS LEAD

Global Clinical Development

Reports to the Head of Late Phase Study Management
Based in France subsidiary in Bois Colombes, close to Paris
Geographic scope of responsibilities: Global

Position Assets :

➤ Respiratory Therapy area :

- Booming market with the COVID-19 pandemic
- Continuously growing market with ageing population, chronic conditions and environmental exposures
- COPD is predicted as being the third leading cause of mortality by 2030.

➤ CHIESI :

- Family Italian group researches, develops and markets innovative drugs with more than 6,000 Chiesi people
- Particular focus in Respiratory
- Since 2019 : First mid-size pharmaceutical company to be B-Corp certified demonstrating its commitment in improving patient quality of life, protecting the planet and its inhabitants
- Well-established, stable and independent company with a long-term growth strategy
- Entrepreneurial culture and strong values giving a real meaning to day-to-day work.
- CHIESI France : 370 people, 136 m€
- Since April 2021 : The 1st pharmaceutical company in France to become « Société à mission »
- Chiesi France is present on the entire value-added chain : R & D / production / distribution / supply
- Benefits of a mid-size pharma : regular interaction with senior management and faster decision-making process
- Great work conditions
- Human-sized and certified Top Employer Europe and Top Employer France.

➤ Position :

- New global position within an international team to strengthen career in R&D
- High level of responsibility and autonomy
- Strong dynamics of Global Clinical Operations with new products arriving
- Join a team with mutual supportiveness spirit
- Transversal position at the beginning allowing a complete availability for learning the products and the company, and for integrating the comprehensive dimension of the position.

Profile:

- Education: Degree in Life Sciences (biological science, pharmacy or other health related discipline) or equivalent.
- Experience:
 - International Clinical Operations Project Director / Project Lead in a pharmaceutical company or a CRO, with at least 8 years of experience in Clinical Operations Project Management
 - Preferably in Respiratory or Respiratory allergy.
- Languages: English fluent - French practice is preferable.