

VP# INSPIRE

The specific activities outlined below are in addition to assuming the duties and responsibilities of all Board Members in accordance with the law, good governance and management practices.

The VP Inspire has two given roles:

- The first one is to build and run attractive programs for the executive and non-executive directors in our network, meaning the most experienced and senior people in their respective organizations, in particular a dedicated initiative called The Board Network.
- The second role is to moderate and develop PWN Think Tanks, giving a collective voice to our members willing to contribute, and building on their convictions and talents to foster women's leadership and gender balance in the economic environment.

Duties and responsibilities include:

For the first role:

- Develop programs to give the executives and the board members who are coming from several industries, across several roles and functions, the proper places and times to network and share experiences and best practices,
- Develop specific initiatives for the benefits of their businesses and the development of their leadership, their influence and their overall impact,
- Create opportunities for them to inspire the younger or less experienced members,
- Encourage their involvement and contribution to PWN's other programs,
- Provide support to PWN Paris' members who are board ready to find new mandate opportunities, through The Board Network.

For the second role :

- Continue to nurture and build on past work of the PWN Paris think tanks, as relevant, that focused on the following topics: Women&Money and Women&Ambition;
- Develop and provide deliverables on the three new topics subjects under development since 2020: Work&Parentality, Climate emergency, Governance;
- Insure the visibility of the deliverables inside and outside PWN Paris;
- Identify new subjects relevant to PWN Paris' mission and values and building innovative points of views, to be brought in front of the civil society and with the potential to fuel future programs for our members.
